

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION CHECKLIST FOR:

JD, JD-LLM in International Human Rights, and JD-LLM in Taxation Applicants

REQUIRED APPLICATION MATERIALS

Application for Admission

The application for admission should be completed in its entirety to the best of your ability.

Personal Statement

The personal statement is your opportunity to introduce yourself to the Admissions Committee. You may discuss, among other topics, personal or professional goals, or your personal, academic, or career history.

Resume

The resume included in your Northwestern Pritzker Law application should include professional, education, and leadership experiences you feel are relevant to and exemplify your candidacy.

Standardized Test Score

Applicants can satisfy the Law School's admissions test requirement by submitting either the LSAT, the GRE, or both. Through the CAS process, the Law School will be able to access LSAT results and will consider those results in its review if an applicant has previously taken it.

To submit your GRE score, use school code 2579 through ETS.

Please see our Standardized Test FAQ for more information.

The Law School Credential Assembly Service

The Law School Credential Assembly Service (CAS) report contains a summary of your:

- Post-Secondary Transcript(s),
- Results of the Law School Admission Test (LSAT, if you have a valid score),
- At least one Letter of Recommendation or Evaluation.

Application Fee

A nonrefundable application fee of $75 to submit your application.

OPTIONAL APPLICATION MATERIALS

Evaluative Interview

Interviews provide the Admissions Committee with additional information about your communication skills, maturity, and motivation. Admissions interviews are optional but are strongly encouraged.
