

Financial Aid Application Instructions Accelerated JD Program (AJD) – Entering in May 2012

Applying for financial aid is separate from the admissions process. Information disclosed in the financial aid process has no bearing on the admissions evaluation process or decisions. You are encouraged to complete the financial aid application process well in advance of the deadline. Students who submit their application materials after the deadline will be considered for loan programs, but may not qualify for all financial aid programs based on the availability of funds. All materials must be received by 5pm CST on February 15, 2012.

REQUIREMENTS FOR SCHOLARSHIP CONSIDERATION:

The Admissions Office make all funding decisions based on a COMBINATION of merit and need-based factors. Individuals must submit the requirement below to be considered for funding.

1. 2012-13 Need Access Application – <http://www.needaccess.org>
International students are only required to complete this application.
 - ◆ Available online: as of January 3, 2012

- NOTE: Additional information may be required as needed. The Financial Aid Office will contact those individuals by email should those materials be required for determining loan eligibility.

NOTE: We strongly recommend that you file your federal tax return PRIOR to filing your FAFSA and this should be done 1 -2 weeks in advanced of when you want to complete your FAFSA. Once your tax return has been processed and approved by the IRS, the FAFSA will be able to pull and auto-populate data from your federal tax return, thus simplifying the process for you. If you elect to complete your FAFSA prior to completing your federal tax return, the federal processor may select you for a process called Verification, requiring you to submit additional paperwork to the Financial Aid Office.

NOTIFICATION OF FINANCIAL AID PACKAGES

SCHOLARSHIPS – The Admissions Office will make notifications via email after the financial aid application deadline.

LOANS - All complete financial aid application will be reviewed in the order in which they are received. The Office of Financial Aid, Chicago will send out preliminary financial aid packages via e-mail beginning March 5, 2012. However, we will begin to notify students about their official financial aid packages beginning March 19, 2012.

Please note: Students who complete their financial aid application by the above deadline will receive their preliminary financial aid package by the deposit deadline. The deposit deadline is March 15, 2012.

CHANGES IN CIRCUMSTANCES

Notify the Office of Financial Aid, Chicago at financial-aid-chicago@northwestern.edu immediately if your financial circumstances change from what you report on your application materials. Notification of any changes in circumstances should be submitted in writing or e-mail. Failure to notify our office of such a change may jeopardize your eligibility for assistance in the current and/or subsequent academic period. A change in circumstances can include marriage, a change in enrollment, expected earnings and/or those of your spouse (if married), receipt of an outside scholarship or other monetary gift, etc. Contact a financial aid advisor if you have any questions regarding this matter.

CHECKING THE STATUS OF YOUR FAFSA:

If you provide an e-mail address on your FAFSA application, you will receive an electronic Student Aid Report (SAR) via e-mail. If you do not provide an email address on your FAFSA, you will receive a SAR in the mail. Allow one week for your FAFSA on the Web to be processed by the Central Processing Service (CPS). Please review your SAR immediately to see if you need to take further action. If you do not receive your SAR within two weeks or need a duplicate SAR, please contact the Federal Student Aid Information Center at (800) 433-3243.
