

Agora Partnerships is a 501(c)3 social enterprise dedicated to helping small and growing businesses in the developing world fight poverty. Agora provides strategy, networks, and access to growth capital to entrepreneurs capable of creating significant social, environmental, and shareholder value. Agora Partnerships also sponsors and manages the Agora Venture Fund, a unique development micro venture capital fund that will make investments in debt and equity in dozens of small businesses in Central America in the next few years.

Agora Partnerships is part of a growing industry that seeks to bring capital and expertise to small businesses in low income countries capable of solving some of the world's toughest challenges.

The law associate will work for both Agora Partnerships and the Fund. Work will include but not be limited to: Liaison with pro bono legal providers, writing proposals for funders like the Inter-American Development Bank and International Financial Corporation, marketing, communications, business development and fundraising work, assistance with the Fund's due diligence process and operations management, exploration of new fund legal structures and streamlining of term sheets and legal advisor to the non profit.

The position offers an excellent opportunity for associates interested in social entrepreneurship, global economic development and micro venture capital. It will require travel to Central America and offer significant opportunity to make an impact, network, and learn about a new and cutting edge field of development. The position will report directly to the Managing Partner.
