

GLOBAL IMPRINTS

Looking for a meaningful experience to fill your extra time this fall? Join us this summer for an unforgettable service experience that can make a world of difference!

Recent law school graduates and law students are welcome to join a fun and eye-opening global service trip.

Location:	Brazil (Rio, Valença)
Timing:	August 15-29, 2009 (an additional 2 week extension is available)
Themes:	Sustainability and Community Development
Objectives:	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1) Global Pro Bono. Identify short-term and long-term global pro bono opportunities where your legal skills can assist worthy local NGOs and social entrepreneurs.2) Professional Development. Gain insights about the opportunities and challenges of practicing law in Brazil by networking with local lawyers, business executives, social entrepreneurs, grassroots organizations, law and business school students.3) Cultural Adventure. Explore the amazing beauty and intriguing history of this tropical paradise.
Service Projects:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Promote Green Technology to Empower Community Development: Assist a local NGO to promote green technology that processes waste to create energy for local communities. Work in a multi-disciplinary group and help assess and define the legal issues presented as the NGO seeks to create a scalable income-generating project.<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Assist Corporations to Promote Reforestation Initiatives. Collaborate with an Ashoka Fellow engaged in reforestation efforts in Brazil for over 15 years. Explore how recent changes in Brazilian law that expand access to funding for agro-forestry efforts. Help business students create the marketing packet to pitch this idea to Corporate Social Responsibility programs and identify strategic partners.<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Support Economic Development in Local Communities. Work with an award winning organization that supports local cooperatives to sell and distribute their handcrafts. Assist the NGO to identify the relevant legal issues as they seek to expand and increase the efficiency of their business model. Assist in defining the terms and conditions for required contracts.
Price:	$3850 double occupancy, international airfare not included.
Register:	Interested? Sign up today. Space is limited. Send an email with your name, contact information and the duration of trip you are interested in.
More info?	Contact Global Imprints at info@globalimprintsllc.com or call us at 866-866-5212. Please visit us at our website: www.globalimprintsllc.com