The Mexican American Legal Defense and Educational Fund (MALDEF) is a national Latino civil rights advocacy organization dedicated to preserving and expanding civil rights in employment, education, immigrant rights, political access and public resource equity for Latinos.

Fellows will work on class action matters concerning immigrant rights, employment discrimination, voters' rights, political access and education. MALDEF deals with cases which have the greatest impact on the Latino community.

Fellows will gain experience in case development, legal research, litigation strategy, client contact, and the drafting of pleadings. Fellows are given the opportunity to become involved in all facets of litigation.

Applicants note: Spanish-speaking ability or knowledge of the Spanish language is NOT required.
