

There's good news for students and recent graduates interested in interning at the White House this fall – the deadline to apply for the Fall 2009 White House Internship Program has been extended!

The deadline has been moved to Monday JUNE 1, 2009.

The White House Internship Program provides a unique opportunity to gain valuable professional experience and build leadership skills. This hands-on program is designed to mentor and cultivate today's young leaders, strengthen their understanding of the Executive Office and prepare them for future public service opportunities.

In addition to typical office duties, interns will supplement their learning experience by attending a weekly lecture series hosted by senior White House staff, assist at White House social events and volunteer in community service projects.

For more information on the program, White House offices, eligibility and applying, go to <http://www.whitehouse.gov/about/internships/>.

Thanks,

The White House Internship Program Team
