OTHER FUNDED RESEARCH PROJECTS

SECOND CHANCES: 100 YEARS OF THE CHILDREN’S COURT: GIVING KIDS A CHANCE TO MAKE A BETTER CHOICE, a Joint Project of the Justice Policy Institute and the Children and Family Justice Center of the Northwestern University School of Law’s Legal Clinic. Funded by a grant from the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation, this book profiles the lives of 25 juvenile court “graduates” who went on to turn their lives around and become productive citizens. Included among the 25 graduates are former Senator Alan Simpson, Claude Brown, author of Manchild in the Promised Land, Bob Beamon, Olympic record holder in the long jump and other young men and women with equally inspiring stories of success. The book can be viewed in its entirety and downloaded free of charge at the following web address: www.cjcj.org/centennial.
