

J. SAMUEL TENENBAUM

AREAS OF EMPHASIS

- Litigation

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Has extensive experience in litigation and concentrates his practice on litigation before the federal and state courts with a focus on business law and corporate litigation.
- Won a landmark Illinois unfair competition case.
- Won a seminal case in the area of lender liability for credit disclosures.
- Recent court victories include:
  - Not guilty verdict in a pro bono murder case for a man who was wrongfully imprisoned for eight years;
  - Successful defense of a client, a large Chicago-area container company, against racial discrimination charges and won judgment for the violation of an agreement not to compete and unfair competition;
  - Judgment requiring demolition of a building for lease violation; and
  - Dismissal of consumer fraud class action.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- Visiting Professor at Northwestern University School of Law
- Appointed as Commissioner, National Conference of Commissioners On Uniform State Laws, March 2004
- Member, Chicago, Illinois State and American Bar Associations
- Member of the Bar, U.S. Supreme Court
- Admitted to practice before the U.S. Courts of Appeal for the Second, Seventh, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh and Federal Circuits.
- Practiced in courts throughout the United States as well as in foreign jurisdictions.

EDUCATION

- Northwestern University School of Law, J.D., cum laude, 1973
  - Order of the Coif
  - Editor-in-Chief, Northwestern University Law Review
- Ohio State University, B.A., 1970