Northwestern Pritzker School of Law is proud to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Bluhm Legal Clinic. To mark the occasion, we are planning a celebration for the Clinic community, both past and present, and those who have been an integral part of the Clinic for the past 50 years.

Please join the celebration and support us as we move forward for the next 50 years.
About Northwestern Pritzker School of Law
Bluhm Legal Clinic

Housing more than 20 clinics within 14 centers, the Bluhm Legal Clinic is widely recognized as one of the most comprehensive and effective clinical programs in the country. Through the Clinic, Northwestern Law students gain direct experience representing clients and fine-tune their skills as advocates.

Typically, 90 percent of students from each graduating class participate in the Clinic during their time at Northwestern Law, serving a wide range of clients from teenagers tangled in an unjust juvenile legal system to entrepreneurs in need of affordable legal advice. As students gain unparalleled hands-on, real-world experience, they also can dramatically improve the lives of those they serve.

Through your financial support, the Clinic will continue this important work of training skilled, ethical and public-spirited lawyers while impacting the community in which we live.

“[It] teaches you a lot about what it means to be a strong advocate and what it means to be a good lawyer, but also what it means to really care about your clients in a different way.”
—Samantha Woo (JD ’12)

“It is not an exaggeration to say that I loved every day I spent at the clinic. Having so many brilliant legal minds around me on a daily basis was a true blessing, and I am so grateful for that experience. I am especially proud of the work we did on behalf of a client convicted of murder at 16 years old.”
—Abby Parr (JD ’14)
