Welcome to the Seventh Annual Diversity Week at Northwestern University School of Law

The Diversity Coalition is dedicated to actively facilitating discussions on race, sex, gender, and social issues of widespread concern to the greater law school community. In an attempt to expand how we define diversity, this year we explore topics that are oftentimes overlooked, such as the Age Discrimination and Employment Act, the intersection of race and sexuality, and religion's role in how the United States is viewed by the world. It is our sincere hope and belief that this year's Diversity Week helps foster the healthy exchange of ideas, while promoting respect for varying, and often unpopular, viewpoints.

Please check our Web site for the most current information on panel schedules and locations —

All events will be held at Northwestern University School of Law, 375 East Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

Lunch will be served at all panels.
