The Garrett Institute is the preeminent corporate and securities law conference in the Midwest. It provides timely analyses of critical issues that are highly relevant to anyone advising public companies.

Northwestern Law Professional Education is an accredited CLE provider in the state of Illinois and many other states.
Why Attend?

- Hear From Leaders in Corporate Law: Our panelists include some of the top practitioners in law firms and corporations, the most influential judges, and the senior members of the regulatory domain. They also include many top investment bankers, strategic counsel, and service providers.

- Relevant Information for all Advisors of Public Companies: Sessions over the last several years have examined the lifecycle of shareholder activism, discussed important accounting and auditing developments, explored trends in M&A, studied counseling the board in a crisis, and much more.

- Marketing, Business Development and Branding: Make over 100,000 impressions on a targeted audience of corporations, law firms, and more through our unique marketing mix of print, e-mail, and online advertising.

- Build Your Network: Expand your relationships within public companies and law firms, and build upon your relationships with existing clients.

SEC Chair Mary Jo White is confirmed to be speaking at the 2015 Garrett Institute

Chair White’s speaking this year will provide attendees with exposure to unique insights on the foremost regulatory matters in securities law. This will be an excellent year to attend.
Why Attend Alone When You Can...

- Share Registrations With Clients and Colleagues: Extend this opportunity to your existing clients or with your colleagues. Offer this educational and networking experience to stakeholders of your choosing.

- Save 20% or even 35%: Significant discounts are available by purchasing as few as three registrations.
