

Executive and Professional Education • Bartlit Center for Trial Strategy

Advocacy and Ethics Film Series

12 Angry Men

April 23, 2009

Judgment at Nuremberg

May 21, 2009

Philadelphia

June 16, 2009

- *New pricing:
$125 per session*
- *Now offering 2.0 Illinois Professional
Responsibility credits per session*

NOTE: June 30, 2009, is the deadline to earn MCLE credits this reporting period for last names N-Z.

Executive and Professional Education

Northwestern University School of Law
375 East Chicago Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60611-3069

Nonprofit Organization
U.S. Postage
PAID
Permit No. 9937
Chicago, IL 60611

Films often portray the best and worst of the legal profession, providing an ideal method for analyzing and evaluating both positive and negative aspects of the practice of law.

Join a lively moderated discussion of crucial issues in advocacy and legal ethics, as raised in three award winning films.

12 Angry Men presented by Bob Burns

Judgment at Nuremberg presented by David Scheffer

Philadelphia presented by Steve Lubet

Time: 5:30–7:00 p.m. Registration and popcorn: 5:00 p.m.

Tuition: $125 per session. Optional parking for $6.

Register online at least two days prior to each session.

www.law.northwestern.edu/professionaled/ethicsfilmseries

Call: (312) 503-8932 for further information

With confirmed registration, you will be provided with a copy of the DVD to view prior to the discussion.

Earn 2.0 Illinois Professional Responsibility credits for each session.