Students,

In this week’s curriculum update, I’ll cut right to the chase. There are 5 curricular reasons to read this e-mail (in no particular order of importance):

Reason #1: We’ve made the following changes to the Fall 2014 Schedule:

- Administrative Law (Fischman) will now meet MTW from 10:55am-11:50am.
- Legal Ethics (Foster) will now meet on Tuesdays 4pm-5:50pm.
- Legal Ethics for Business Lawyers (Foster/Muchman) will now meet on Tuesdays 6pm-7:50pm.
- Legal Ethics (Hilliker) will now meet on Wednesdays 4pm-5:50pm.
- Pre-Trial Advocacy (Mayer/Shapiro) is a 2-credit (not 3-credit) course and will meet on Wednesdays 6pm-7:50pm.

Reason #2: The following courses will meet the Perspective Elective graduation requirement:

Fall
- American Legal History: Warren Court
- American Democracy
- Colloquium: Law and Economics
- Feminist Jurisprudence
- History of Economic Regulation
- Ideas of the First Amendment
- Law and Society
- Race, Social Science & the Law

Spring
- American Legal History
- Analyzing Human Rights
- Colloquium: Law and Economics
- Comparative Law
- Economic Analysis of the Law
- Jurisprudence
- Law & Rhetoric
- Narrative Structures
- Western Legal Tradition

Reason #3: The Winter Intersession course dates are as follows; please see CAESAR for more details:

- Advanced Negotiation Workshop: December 20, 21, 22
- Persuasion: Writing Across Disciplines: January 5, 6, 8, 9
- Pornography, Free Speech, and Moral Harm: December 20, 21, January 10, 11

Reason #4: Attached is a Fall 2014 Time Block and the Fall 2014 Exam Schedule to assist you in planning your curriculum; these resources will be posted on the Registration webpage for your future review.

Reason #5: The first student to respond to this e-mail and correctly name the visiting professor for Fall 2014 who taught me Torts during my 1L year at HLS will receive a degree audit and curricular advising session at a time of his or her choice prior to Fall bidding!
