Third Annual Chicago Forum on International Antitrust Issues
Presented by: Northwestern Law Searle Center on Law, Regulation, and Economic Growth

Thursday, June 7, 2012–Friday, June 8, 2012
Northwestern University School of Law

In an ever changing legal landscape, this program again promises to provide a timely and practical update on antitrust developments around the world. Our speakers are leading private and in-house lawyers, economists and antitrust enforcers from the US, Canada, EU, Brazil and India. Among them are FTC Commissioner Edith Ramirez, the Honorable Diane Wood from the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals, and Professor William Kovacic, now at George Washington University Law School and formerly an FTC Commissioner. We hope you’ll join us for this exciting program.

- US/EU Year in Review: What Happens to Antitrust Enforcement When Economies Falter?
- Multijurisdictional Merger Remedies: Strategies for Getting the Deal Done in the US and Abroad
- Brazil’s New Antitrust Regime: Challenges Ahead?
- Increased Inter-Agency Collaborative Enforcement of Cartels: What That Means for Investigations, Disclosures and Penalties
- How Many Economists Does It Take To Try an Antitrust Case In or Outside the US?
- Differences in Addressing Competitor Complaints at US and Non-US Agencies
- Spotlight on China
- Antitrust Enforcement in India
- Antitrust Issues in the Strategic Acquisition and Use of Patents
- Abuse of Dominance: Facing the Music
- Distribution Outside the US: Why so Different?
- Compliance Workshop: Damage Control

About the Event
The Third Annual Chicago Forum on International Antitrust Issues is the only Midwest conference of its kind. It is designed to examine the latest developments in competition regulation around the globe providing practitioners and regulators with up-to-date and practical information.

Registration and Tuition
Regular tuition is $400 per person. Government, academic, and judicial attendees may register for $200 per person. This rate applies to full-time, active professionals in these fields. Tuition includes all sessions, continental breakfasts, lunch, coffee breaks, receptions, and program materials distributed at the event. Registrations must be made in advance. On-site registration is only available as space permits and requires an additional $50 fee and must be paid by a check made out to Northwestern University School of Law. Registration is for the full two days of the program for one individual. Shared registration is not available.

Course Materials
For registered participants, course materials will be available for download prior to the event. Registrants will also receive a set of course materials on CD-ROM upon check-in. Registrants and non-registrants may purchase additional copies of the CD-ROM for $50. You may bring your laptop to the program – power outlets and wireless logins will be available.

Cancellation Policy
Full tuition refunds will be made for all written cancellations received by May 24, 2012. A $200 administrative fee will be deducted from refunds on written cancellations received after May 24, 2012. No refunds will be given for cancellations made after May 31, 2012.

Continuing Legal Education Credit
The Chicago Forum on International Antitrust Issues has been approved in Illinois for 12.25 total credit hours including 2.0 professionalism (ethics) credits (ethics approval pending). Questions regarding accreditation may be directed to Sarah Swain at Sarah.Swain@bakermckenzie.com or (312) 861-7609.

Location
The event will be held at Northwestern Law in Wieboldt Hall 340 East Superior Street, on the Chicago campus of Northwestern University and not on the Evanston campus.

Searle Center on Law, Regulation, and Economic Growth
Founded in 2006, the mission of the Searle Center is to study the impact of laws and regulations on economic growth and to communicate the results of that research to academic, public policy, and judicial leaders.
