

Shelley E. Parratt is the Deputy Director (Disclosure Operations) of the SEC's Division of Corporation Finance. In this capacity, Ms. Parratt oversees the Division's disclosure review program, which is responsible for assisting approximately 10,000 reporting companies in meeting their disclosure obligations under the federal securities laws. Ms. Parratt also assists the Director in strategic planning for the Division and in developing Division policy and operational procedures.

Ms. Parratt served as the Acting Director of the Division during the first half of 2009, overseeing all disclosure review, rulemaking, and other Division operations. Ms. Parratt also has served in a number of other positions since joining the Division, including Assistant Director and Associate Director. She received a MBA from Syracuse University and a BA from St. Lawrence University.