

Illinois Death Row Roster, 1977-2003

Center on Wrongful Convictions, Northwestern University School of Law

For each defendant sentenced to death in Illinois between 1977, when capital punishment was restored in the state, and 2003, when Governor George H. Ryan commuted all Illinois death sentences, this table shows the jurisdiction, Illinois Department of Corrections custody date, race of the defendant, number of victims, race of the victims, and final case disposition.(For more information, please see end notes.)

Notes:

The number of victims is the number for which the defendant was convicted in the trial that culminated in the death sentence. In a few instances, the defendant was have been convicted of other murders.

The name, county, custody date, and defendant race information in this table came from the Department of Corrections. The number of victims came from reported decisions or, in instances where there are no reported decisions, prosecutors, defense lawyers, or the news media. The victim race information came from police reports, death certificates, or Illinois Supreme Court opinions.
