

Application Requirements and Instructions Fall 2022 Transfer Candidates

FILING PERIOD AND DEADLINE

Thank you for your interest in becoming a transfer candidate at Northwestern Law! Our fall 2022 transfer application will be available on lsac.org on Monday, May 2, 2022. A complete transfer application consists of several requirements. You are responsible for submitting and completing every application requirement prior to the Friday, June 24, 2022, deadline.

The transfer application period is brief by design. Because successful transfer students are eligible to take part in both the Law School's journal write-on competition as well as the on-campus interviewing program (OCI), we necessarily build in adequate time for these exciting opportunities. Specifically, after transfer students decide to submit an enrollment deposit with Northwestern Law, they are invited to the journal write-on, and we also introduce new transfer students to their career advisers. In turn, these new students may effectively prepare for OCI-- they may write a Northwestern Law resume, develop a bidding strategy, and meet the OCI deadlines that occur in mid-July. OCI will take place during the first two weeks of August 2022 this year.

Because of the accelerated pacing of the transfer application cycle, we strongly encourage you to make arrangements with the registrar's office and/or the dean of students' office at your current law school to have several required documents sent to our main email account.

Please review these instructions carefully and check the email account you share within your application materials often. For that matter, please ensure that your email account is set up to receive messages from admissions@law.northwestern.edu.

REQUIRED APPLICATION MATERIALS

The following list of required application materials is organized by the proper methods for submission. Starting on page 3, we have provided detailed guidance for each requirement.

Please submit these materials to the Office of Admissions through LSAC.org and through LSAC's Credential Assembly Service (CAS):

- The transfer application form
- A current resume
- A personal statement
- Optional essay(s)
- A writing sample from a course taken during the first year of law school
- The Credential Assembly Service (CAS) Report
  - LSAT score report
  - Official undergraduate transcripts
  - One letter of recommendation from a law school professor who taught you during your first year of law school
- A nonrefundable transfer application fee of $75

Because of the relatively brief transfer application period, we urge you to make arrangements with the registrar's office and/or the dean of students office at your current law school to have the following materials sent to our main email address: admissions@law.northwestern.edu:

- A letter of good standing from the registrar/records office at your current law school; and,
- Law school transcripts as of the completion of your first year.

If you were admitted to your current law school with a GRE score, please make arrangements with ETS to submit the following materials directly to Northwestern Pritzker School of Law:

- Official GRE score report(s)

The remaining application requirement must be completed through our online interview portal:

- Transfer Applicant Interview: we will send you instructions after you have submitted your application through LSAC.

DETAILED APPLICATION GUIDANCE

Please submit these materials to the Office of Admissions through LSAC.org and through LSAC's Credential Assembly Service (CAS):

☐ Transfer application form

The application for admission should be completed in its entirety and to the best of your ability.

☐ Resume

The resume should include relevant professional, academic, and leadership experience that illustrates your transfer candidacy.

☐ Personal Statement

The personal statement is your opportunity to introduce yourself to the Northwestern Law Admissions Committee. You may discuss, among other topics, your professional goals and your personal, academic, and career history. Additionally, you may wish to highlight your motivations at this point in your legal education. For example, the Admissions Committee may find it helpful to learn why you are seeking transfer admission at Northwestern Law.

☐ Optional essay(s)

Through an optional essay, you may introduce the Admissions Committee to information about your background and perspectives. In turn, you may build upon the other components of the transfer application and your candidacy.

☐ 1L writing sample

A writing sample from your first year of law school is required. Please submit a sample you believe is the best representation of your legal writing skills.

☐ Credential Assembly Service (CAS) Report

- The first page of the CAS report includes your LSAT score(s).
- Final undergraduate transcripts are typically submitted as part of the required Credential Assembly Service (CAS) report.
- Letter of recommendation from a law school professor
One letter of recommendation is required. This letter must be completed by a law school professor with whom you have taken a class during your first year of law school. (Please note: your file will become complete once we have received the letter from your law school professor. The Office of Admissions will not hold your file for additional or pending letters.)

❑ GRE score(s)

If you matriculated to your current law school as a GRE-only candidate, please make arrangements with ETS to have an official GRE score report made available to Northwestern Law. Our GRE code is 2579. Secondly, please notify us at the time of your application that you will be submitting a GRE score in lieu of an LSAT score. Please send an email to us at the time of your transfer application; the address is: admissions@law.northwestern.edu.

❑ Application Fee

A nonrefundable application fee of $75 is payable through LSAC.org.

Please make arrangements for the following required documents to be sent directly to the Office of Admissions at our main email account: admissions@law.northwestern.edu.

❑ Letter of good standing

A letter from your current law school must attest to your good standing and must be sent directly from the registrar or records office to the Northwestern Law Office of Admissions. Because of the relatively short period for the transfer admission cycle, we urge you to make arrangements with your current law school to have this documentation sent to us via our main email account: admissions@law.northwestern.edu.

❑ Complete 1L transcripts

Complete, first year (1L) law school transcripts should be sent directly from your current registrar's office to the Northwestern Law Office of Admissions and Financial Aid via email: admissions@law.northwestern.edu.

We strongly discourage the mailing of hard copy transcripts during the summer of 2022 because of the accelerated timeline for the transfer admission season. The mail service has been significantly delayed due to the pandemic, and transfer applications cannot be reviewed until all required documents are received and processed.

The Admissions Committee will not evaluate your transfer file until we have received your complete 1L transcripts. Thus, please only work your current law school's registrar to release your 1L transcripts to Northwestern Law when you are certain the course hours, grades, grade point averages, etc. are reflected there for both the fall and the spring semesters of your 1L year. In our experience, these complete 1L transcripts are not available until early to mid-June at most all law schools.

For all these reasons, please make arrangements with your current law school to have your complete 1L transcripts sent to us at our main admissions email account: admissions@law.northwestern.edu.

□ Transfer Applicant Interview

Our transfer applicant interview is hosted via an online platform and must be completed by the transfer application deadline of Friday June 24, 2022***.

Within two business days of submitting your transfer application, a member of our team will send you instructions for completing your Transfer Candidate Interview.

The process is simple; you need an Internet-connected device with a functioning webcam and microphone. We recommend you use a computer (rather than a phone or a tablet) to conduct the interview. You will be asked a series of questions that have been developed specifically for transfer applicants.

Following each pre-recorded question, you will have 30 seconds to consider your answer. Immediately thereafter, you will have 60 seconds to respond. The system allows for unlimited practice sessions but once you begin the formal interview questions, you will have only one chance; this allows the Admissions Committee to see your extemporaneous responses.

We also ask our transfer candidates to respond in writing to a specific transfer-related question. The written question will appear immediately after the spoken questions. You will have 15 minutes to compose your response to this final question.

Please note: a transfer application will be considered incomplete until the interview responses have been given.

**Depending on how many practice questions you complete, it may take up to an hour to submit the interview requirement after you have received the link and instructions from our office. You will not be able to proceed with the interview until we send you a link to the platform, along with instructions for completing this requirement. While we strive to send the invitation as soon as possible following our receipt of a transfer application, we urge you to build in ample time for this requirement. This is particularly true if you submit your application during the week of June 20th, just days before the June 24th deadline.

Thank you for your interest in Northwestern Law!
