

1966-67 Bd. Gov. Regs. No. 5

Approved May 2, 1967

PLEDGE OF HONOR FOR ENTERING STUDENTS

Sec. 101 Pursuant to the authority of the Board under the Honor Code to orient the student body to the spirit and the letter of the Code, the following regulation is promulgated to acquaint new students with the Code's significance in all aspects of Law School life.

Sec. 201 All entering students shall sign a pledge signifying their acknowledgment of the Honor Code and their willingness to be governed under it. Any student refusing to sign the pledge shall be requested to enter on the pledge slip his reasons for so declining and shall be advised that he will nevertheless be subject to the Honor Code while a student at the Law School.

Sec. 202 The pledge shall read as follows:

"I hereby acknowledge the application of the Northwestern University Law School Honor Code to all aspects of Law School life and pledge my willingness to be governed under it."

(Signed) _____

Sec. 301 The pledge slip, either signed or unsigned with an explanation thereon, shall be placed in the permanent Law School file of the student as evidence of his pledge.

Chairman of the Board

Miles C. Cortez, Jr.
Miles Cortez

HONOR CODE PLEDGE

Pursuant to the authority of the Board of Governors under the HONOR CODE to orient the student body to the letter and to the spirit of the CODE, the Board requires that all entering students shall sign a pledge signifying their acknowledgment of the HONOR CODE and their willingness to be governed under it.

Any student who refuses to sign the pledge shall be requested to enter on the pledge form his reasons for so declining and shall be advised that he will nevertheless be subject to the HONOR CODE while he is a student at the Law School of Northwestern University.

The pledge slip, either signed or unsigned with an explanation thereon, shall be placed in the permanent file of the Law School for the individual student as evidence of his pledge.

"I, _____, hereby acknowledge print your name
the application of the Northwestern University School of Law HONOR CODE to all aspects of Law School life and hereby pledge my willingness to be governed under it."

(signed) _____